If you are looking for peace and serenity, then Broadway Green Farm is the place. A five/six bedroom house with modern conveniences and plenty of old world charm which has recently been fully refurbished and decorated with new carpets throughout. With three reception rooms each with their own woodburning stove, a spacious kitchen for family gatherings and endless entertaining from the lounge with French doors leading to the patio with outstanding country views. The ground floor also benefits from a utility room, WC and room which could double as an office/study or 6th bedroom. As you head upstairs you will find a master suite with en-suite modern bathroom, three further double bedrooms and a single bedroom, plus family bathroom. Outside you will benefit from a fully enclosed garden which surrounds the property, amazing views of the Countryside and parking for two cars. One family pet considered.

Petham is five miles south of the Cathedral City of Canterbury with easy access to road and rail links.
