A charming, traditional two bedroom cottage which has recently undergone a full refurbishment. As you enter the property through the original cottage door, to your left you will find a fitted kitchen with breakfast bar, and on your right, the lounge with woodburning stove and French doors to the garden. To the rear of the house is the bathroom with shower. Upstairs you will find two good sized double bedrooms. The property has a large back garden to maintain, so a tenant with an interest in gardening is a must! 1 Church Cottages is set in the semi-rural village of Goodnestone with its renowned Goodnestone Park Estate, village pub and charming walks through the countryside. The Cathedral City of Canterbury is 8 miles from the village and the port of Dover just 15 miles.
