There is a timber home office benefits from air conditioning and heating – a fantastic space for those who work from home as well as plenty of storage to the side of the house.

Boughton-under-Blean is a well-connected village located between Faversham and Canterbury. It offers easy access to both the A2 and M2 motorways and benefits from a regular bus service. The village has four pubs and restaurants, including the popular Cave, set within the grounds of Boughton Golf Club. Surrounded by open countryside and ancient woodland, it's a favorite spot for walkers and cyclists. Nearby, Mount Ephraim boasts ten acres of Edwardian gardens, featuring a lake and a Japanese rock garden. Just 3.5 miles away lies Seasalter beach, an ideal place to enjoy summer sunsets. Families are well served with D-Dee's Nursery, rated 'outstanding' by Ofsted and only a short walk from the property, as well as Boughton-under-Blean and Dunkirk Primary School within the village.

We understand from the vendors there is a management fee for the upkeep of external communal areas of £120 per year. We suggest the purchaser and their solicitor checks this information before exchange of contracts.
