Offers in Excess of £200,000

Freehold

Situated on Sandwich Road on the outskirts of Ash village, this attractive period mid terrace home (built around 1822) offers well-proportioned accommodation and a delightful south facing rear garden, all within comfortable walking distance of the village centre and its amenities. The property has been well maintained throughout and combines character features with practical living space, making it an appealing choice for first time buyers, downsizers or those seeking a charming village home with outdoor space.

- Attractive period mid terrace home.
- Original fireplaces and character features.
- Stable door feature in kitchen.
- Two bedrooms & family bathroom.
- Private south facing rear garden.
- walking distance of village amenities.

The ground floor accommodation begins with a welcoming living room featuring a character fireplace as a focal point, leading through to the kitchen at the rear which is fitted with a range of units and provides space for free standing appliances.

On the upper level, the main bedroom is positioned to the front and benefits from a feature fireplace and alcove storage, while the second bedroom enjoys views over the garden. These are served by a three piece family bathroom.

Externally, the property benefits from ample on street parking to the front. A right of way from the stable door, via an adjoining neighbouring garden leads to the private rear garden, which is fully fenced and predominantly laid to lawn.

Located within easy reach of Ash village centre, local shops, schools and transport links, this well presented period home offers a blend of village convenience, character and outdoor space in a popular and well connected location.

Ash is a popular and well established village offering a friendly community atmosphere and a good range of everyday amenities. The village benefits from a primary school, local shop, public house, village hall and recreational facilities, making it well suited to both families and those seeking a convenient village lifestyle.
